

Statement of Completion Sustainable Business Law

Second and third-year students at the School of Law can begin developing a specialty in the field of sustainable business law. Requirements for receiving a Sustainable Business Law Statement of Completion are as follows:

1) C or better in each of the following courses:

- Business Associations
- Securities Regulation
- Administrative Law

2) C or better in one or more of the following courses:

- Natural Resources Law
- Environment & Pollution

3) C or better in two or more of the following courses:

- |                                   |                                   |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| • Climate Change Litigation       | • Hazardous Waste                 |
| • Comparative Environmental Law   | • International Environmental Law |
| • Energy Law                      | • Renewable Energy Law            |
| • Environmental Justice           | • Sustainability                  |
| • Global Environmental Challenges | • Water Law                       |

4) C or better in two or more of the following courses:

- |                                  |                                    |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| • Accounting for Lawyers         | • Private Equity & Venture Capital |
| • Advanced Business Associations | • Small Business Clinic            |
| • Business Planning              | • Sustainable Business             |
| • Environmental Tax              | • Tax Policy                       |
| • Mergers & Acquisitions         |                                    |

5) Satisfactory completion of an appropriate paper, clinic, externship, business plan, integrative project, or other learning experience approved by one of Professors Amos, Illig or Sneirson:

OR

6) Approved Petition by either Professors Amos, Illig or Sneirson, for substitution of substantially equivalent work.