LIVING ON A FINITE EARTH

ENERGY LAW AND POLICY FOR A NEW ERA

Friday, October 10, 2008

SCHOOL OF LAW, KNIGHT LAW CENTER, 1515 AGATE STREET, EUGENE

The western United States has been at the forefront of energy technology and innovative energy policy. Where do we go from here with rising gas prices and increasing demand for energy? This free public symposium will address these pressing issues with panel discussions and keynote presentations exploring the future of energy law and policy in a changing world. CLE credits pending.

Sponsored by the Journal of Environmental Law and Litigation and the Environmental and Natural Resources Law Program. For more information, contact Kelly Fahl, kfahl@uoregon.edu.
