

JOURNAL OF ENVIRONMENTAL LAW AND LITIGATION

VOLUME 18(1)

SPRING 2003

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ARTICLES

A New Approach in Water Management or Business as Usual? The Milk River, Montana Brabra A. Coses	1
Another Tragedy of the Commons: Placing Cost Where It Belongs By Banning Hazardous Substances in Fertilizer Through State Legislation Shawn Waliser	51
Applying the Third Party Beneficiary Theory of Contracts to Enforce Clean Water Act § 404 Permits: A California Case Study Justin Massey	129
Costal Development Run Amuck: A Policy of Retreat May Be the Only Hope Martin M. Randall	145
SPEECHES
Opening Address of the 21st Annual Public Interest Environmental Conference Derek Rieman	187
Air, Light/Fire, Water and Earth/Pollen: Sacred Elements that Sustain Life Robert Yazzie	191
Feminism and Environmentalism in a Time of War Noël Sturgeon	209